3er domingo en tiempo ordinario

Algunos de los mejores estudiantes de nuestra escuela nunca dejan de intentarlo hasta que dominan una habilidad o completan una tarea o alcanzan un objetivo. Es una determinación que se mantiene enfocada, superando obstáculos, resolviendo problemas y aprendiendo habilidades. El éxito llega a aquellos que son persistentes y atentos a sus objetivos.

Motivados por el amor, las personas pueden ser muy persistentes en la búsqueda de ayuda para un ser querido, trabajando por un mejor trabajo o luchando por crear un mejor lugar para vivir y aprender. Nuestra motivación es una parte importante de lo que nos impulsa hacia nuestros objetivos. Es una razón para sacrificar, trabajar e intentar nuevamente hasta que tengamos éxito. Queremos lo mejor para aquellos que amamos.

Dios quiere lo mejor para su pueblo. Entonces, cuando Dios nos llama a amarnos los unos a los otros, somos agradecidos y motivados para lograr grandes cosas. Nuestros corazones siempre están inquietos al buscar la Presencia de Dios y aferrarnos a la esperanza de la salvación. No es siempre un viaje fácil. Pero juntos persistimos, venciendo el pecado y la tentación de encontrar los frutos y los dones del Espíritu Santo. El éxito vendrá a aquellos que responden al llamado de Dios.
