ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn
New Morning
Easter Sunday (Cycle B)

The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days (see Jonah 1:17). Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile (see Hosea 6:2). Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the nether world (see Psalm 16:9-10).

Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word - "tomb." What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do - raised Him up on the third day (see Mark 9:31; 10:34).

What they saw and believed, they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels - from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree (see Deuteronomy 21:22-23), to His rising from the dead.

We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Epistle says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week - to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come - when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory."

clergytrust

Every Easter, our parish collection benefits Clergy Trust which cares for the health and well-being of our 536 active and senior priests in good standing. By supporting the collection, you can show your appreciation and support for the priests who have made and continue to make a difference in your life, the life of our parish, and the lives of countless others in our community. This year more than ever, your support is needed and appreciated. Thank you in advance for your generosity to this collection. Please consider making your gift today by visiting clergytrust.org or by scanning the QR code here.

Catholic Appeal

Recently, we launched our annual Catholic Appeal, along with all the other parishes throughout the Archdiocese. Each year, the Catholic Appeal provides the faithful with a way to help support the ministries that support our parishes, our schools, and our communities. This is our Church, and every gift makes a difference. Please consider making your gift today by visiting bostoncatholicappeal.org or by scanning the QR code here. Your gift has an immediate impact on our parish and the work of our Church. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

HOMILÍA DEL SANTO PADRE FRANCISCO

Después de la escucha de la Palabra de Dios, de este paso del Evangelio, me nace decir tres cosas.

Primero: el anuncio. Ahí hay un anuncio: el Señor ha resucitado. Este anuncio que desde los primeros tiempos de los cristianos iba de boca en boca; era el saludo: el Señor ha resucitado. Y las mujeres, que fueron a ungir el cuerpo del Señor, se encontraron frente a una sorpresa. La sorpresa... Los anuncios de Dios son siempre sorpresas, porque nuestro Dios es el Dios de las sorpresas. Y así desde el inicio de la historia de la salvación, desde nuestro padre Abraham, Dios te sorprende: «Pero ve, ve, deja, vete de tu tierra». Y siempre hay una sorpresa detrás de la otra. Dios no sabe hacer un anuncio sin sorprendernos….Y la sorpresa es lo que te conmueve el corazón, lo que te toca precisamente allí, donde tú no lo esperas.

Segundo: la prisa. Las mujeres corren, van deprisa a decir: «¡Pero hemos encontrado esto!».Las sorpresas de Dios nos ponen en camino, inmediatamente, sin esperar. Y así corren para ver. Y Pedro y Juan corren. Los pastores la noche de Navidad corren: «Vamos a Belén a ver lo que nos han dicho los ángeles». Y la Samaritana, corre para decir a su gente: «Esta es una novedad: he encontrado a un hombre que me ha dicho todo lo que he hecho»….En nuestros barrios, en los pueblos cuando sucede algo extraordinario, la gente corre a ver. Ir deprisa. Andrés no perdió tiempo y fue deprisa donde Pedro a decirle: «Hemos encontrado al Mesías».Las sorpresas, las buenas noticias, se dan siempre así: deprisa. En el Evangelio hay uno que se toma un poco de tiempo; no quiere arriesgar. Pero el Señor es bueno, lo espera con amor, es Tomás. «Yo creeré cuando vea las llagas», dice. También el Señor tiene paciencia para aquellos que no van tan deprisa.

Lo tercero que yo quisiera decir hoy es una pregunta: «¿Y yo qué? ¿Tengo el corazón abierto a las sorpresas de Dios? ¿Soy capaz de ir deprisa, o siempre con esa cantilena, "veré mañana, mañana"? ¿Qué me dice a mí la sorpresa?». Juan y Pedro fueron deprisa al sepulcro. De Juan el Evangelio nos dice: «creyó». También Pedro: «creyó», pero a su modo, con la fe un poco mezclada con el remordimiento de haber negado al Señor. El anuncio causó sorpresa, la carrera/ir deprisa y la pregunta: ¿Y yo hoy en esta Pascua qué hago? ¿Tú, qué haces?
